To Know God-To Love God-To Serve God

Greetings Church!

This month, we give thanks for many blessings. We give thanks for the harvest. We give thanks for all this past year has brought us. We give thanks for family and friends. And, since this is an election year, we give thanks that we live in a country where our vote and voice matters. We give thanks for all who labored and sacrificed to make that happen, and we also give thanks for those who continue work for liberty and justice for all (regardless of race, creed, language, gender, sexual orientation, or economic status). If you haven't already, be sure to go out and vote.

November has become an exciting month for me in recent years. It's the month Katie and I started dating, November 23, 2019. Then, I proposed to her November 22, 2020, and we were married November 27, 2021. Come to find out, my parents were also married in November, on November 7. And my grandma was married on November 17. So, not only is November the month we celebrate Thanksgiving, but I have come to give special thanks for my family and for generations of family. This November, Katie and I get to celebrate our first year of marriage and all that God has sent our way in that time.

No family is perfect, and not every family is blood or by marriage. Some family is chosen. As Christians, we are all family, too. We are all siblings and neighbors, brothers and sisters in Christ, co-heirs with Christ of God's unending reign of love. Whatever your family looks like, I hope you get to celebrate and be thankful for each other. And however you came to be a part of our Casey FCC family, whoever you are, I hope we can be thankful to be family together.

Grace and peace,
Pastor Evan
