FROM THE PASTOR'S DESK....

My first weeks in Casey have been filled, not only with boxes, but also with a warm welcome, love and laughter. Thank you for all the ways you have shown me hospitality: helping unload and setting up my home, opening your homes to me, and inviting me to be part of your lives. It is joy to be here and I look forward to all the things God has in store for us together as we get to know each other better and explore what God is calling us to do next; for our church, our community and our world.

It is a joy for me to be in worship with you on Sunday morning and I hope you will have patience with me as we are still in the process of getting used to each other. We are a couple of Sundays into the Easter season and in worship we will be focusing on scriptures from the First Book of John. It is a small epistle found at the end of the New Testament, but this small work is well worth our time as it talks a great deal about love; the love of God for us and the love for us to show to each other. I am excited to move through these scriptures with you and share with you what God puts on my heart. See you Sunday (or any other day you want to stop by and say hello)!

Blessings,
Jacqueline
